StirGo

AED 59.00

SKU: DW-021

The 380ml self stirring mug is made of stainless steel & ABS, and the silicon at the bottom makes the mug stable and easy to use. The automatic mixing feature uses magnetic force and fluid self-stirring technology to stir the liquid in the cup. A cover is included with the mug to ensure no contents splash out. It is the perfect travel coffee mug to carry on the go. The cover/lid was designed to ensure you enjoy every sip of coffee. The mug is incredibly easy to use. Simply press the switch to quickly cool down and mix the beverage. Using this mug leads to saving energy and protecting the environment. Battery: 2*AA Batteries (Not Included)
